

Clarification

Dated: 17th January, 2012

In reference to news item being run by some of the electronic channels, it is clarified that discussions with Conoco Phillips to explore possibilities of any business partnership are at a very nascent stage. Any further information at this time would be against corporate governance guidelines.